SNOWDROP SPOT

A NOTE FROM LIBERTY

The Snowdrop Spot collection from Liberty Fabrics presents a delicate floral design in refined hues and tones, inspired by the world of paint and interiors.

Snowdrop Spot's origin lies in an Art Nouveau furnishing fabric in the Liberty Archive, dating from 1896. The London Design Team redrew and reworked the small snowdrop design, in a typical stylized trail, with a spot background in the same tone. The result is an elegant and subtle tone-on-tone design.

Designed as a blender fabric, Snowdrop Spot sits alongside our vast archive of Liberty prints. Available in a sophisticated palette that's guaranteed to add an understated beauty to your crafting projects.

Traditionally screen printed onto Lasenby cotton, a soft base developed by Liberty Fabrics' specifically for quilting and craft projects.

Whilst every effort is made to ensure colour consistency, please be aware that due to the nature of the product and the print process, slight variances may occur in colour definition between this document and the fabric
